

Aunties and Uncles - Volunteer Program

Aunties and Uncles is a program designed to match Black children and youth in foster care with adults “aunties and uncles” from their communities to meet their racial, cultural and religious needs.

Like other mentor/role model programs Aunties and Uncles will participate in activities that the adult and child/youth find mutually beneficial. Activities might include community events, movies, sports, music, tutoring and homework, arts, crafts, doing hair, or cooking.

Who can be an Auntie or Uncle?

- Anyone over the age of 21.
- Able to volunteer a minimum of one hour a week.
- Minimum one year commitment.
- You must also complete a screening through the Children’s Aid Society, including a police check.
- Must identify as a member of the Black/African Canadian Community.
